El Camino 'Best' in Athletics

For the first time in eleven years, El Camino College wins the 1965-66 Cari White Trophy, symbolic of best over-all Metropolitan Conference athletic supremacy. El Camino edged Los Angeles Valley College by three and three-fourths points. The Warriors piled up 66% to the Monarchs 63. Long Beach City College is in third with 60% points, with Cerritos College in fourth, scoring 56%.

Wade Pitches Second Victory

Bruce Wade picked up his second pitching victory of the week Friday as North High defeated Excelsior, 6-3 in the CIF Triple-A baseball playoffs. The victorious Saxons clash with a potent Pacific High of the Citrus Belt League Tuesday afternoon. The site will not be determined until a flip-of-the-coin for home team is completed tomorrow via Commissioner Ken Fagans' honest-proof telephone.

While Wade was giving up three unearned runs to Excelsior at Cerritos College Friday, his teammates pounded out 10 hits for six runs. Ken Stuler, Jeff Osborn, Rich Gonzales and Jerry Ball got two apiece.

The Saxons gave Wade a 3-0 lead going into the bottom of the third, but the Pilots go three back to get even in the game.

North's first run in the second frame came on a double by Gonzales and a subsequent passed ball scored him.

In the third inning Mike Tuffley walked, Osborn singled, Jim Machis was safe on an error, and Gonzales got a sacrifice fly for two runs.

Roger Hansburger and Mike Stoker cleaned the bases with two away in the third to tie the game for Excelsior, but four North singles by Ball, Stuler, Osborn and Wade made it 5-3.

Gonzales' second hit brought in Bachis with the seventh.

Heading a fast field of sprinters in the Hollywood Express will be the defending champion, L. K. Shapiro's Azure Te. The Nashville colt won as a three-year-old in 1965 and will be seeking to repeat his sparkling triumph of a year ago.

Among his expected rivals are Baron Gruder, Solazo, Emphill's Lodge, Happy Sean and Nasharco.

Likely prospects for the Will Rogers Stakes, a definitive test leading to the $100,000 added Hollywood Derby, include such prominent three-year-olds as Vague Image, Harry Gelbart, Postage, Drin, Wingover and Ri Tux.

Sharpe Tosses 1-Hit Shutout

By HENRY BURKE
 Press-Herald Sport Editor
 Sky League runner up. Torrance goes into its third CIF-AAA playoff game against Savanna Tuesday with some serious thoughts about winning. The Tartars huddled around Pitcher Bob Sharpe Friday and came up with a 5-0 shutout over Mayfair of the Suburban League at Blair Field to advance to the quarter-finals.

Savanna, a 6-0 winner over Long Beach Poly and 5-4 winner over Covina, came to the playoffs by way of the Crestview League.

Tuesday's game site will not be announced until tomorrow, but the Tartars would just as soon return to the beautiful Long Beach ballpark where Sharpe hurled a splendid one-hitter and the offense came up with some clutch hitting.

The Tartars got off to a 2-0 lead in the first inning against Mayfair. With one away Bart Johnson doubled and Second Baseman Dan Powell took Fred Kendall's grounder and tried to get Johnson at third. He erred on the throw and Kendall wound up on second as the run scored. Kendall came home on John Zienke's hit.

Kendall doubled with two away in the fifth to score Steve Kealey who had singled. In the seventh Sharpe's single with one out was followed by a double by Danny Kling and a strikeout to Johnson, but Kendall again delivered a two-strike single to
